JUDGE GUFFY

Handed a Parting Kick From His Old Party Associates.

Judge B. L. D. Guffy, of Butler county, has joined the Independence party, which has a ticket in the field for President and Vice-President. It is said that the judge has belonged to every party which has existed since he became of age, and it is probably well that he hastened to join this new movement, else he might have died of old age, with one party existing which he had never belonged to.—Glasgow Republican.

Papers Of Judge Innes.

KENTUCKY'S FIRST FEDERAL JUDGE, SENT TO WASHINGTON FOR FILING IN CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY.

Former Mayor George D. Todd, of Louisville, has just presented to the Congressional Library, at Washington, the books and papers left him by his great-grandfather, Judge Harry Innes, the first Federal Judge of Kentucky. The books and papers embrace a complete history of Kentucky from 1781 to 1816, and most of them were in Judge Innes' handwriting. Among the papers is an account of the trial of Aaron Burr for treason.

There is also a full account of the proceedings of the Democratic Society of Kentucky of the early days, and a full-bound copy of the Parliament and Western World, an old-time newspaper.

The papers have been in the Todd family for over a century, and could have been disposed of at a large price, but the former Mayor concluded to send them to Washington to be kept forever in the Congressional Library.

Mr. Todd is in receipt of a letter from the Librarian in which he says these are among the most valuable papers sent to the library in recent years.

Announces For Jailer.

WALTER WIGGINTON SUBMITS HIS CLAIMS FOR NOMINATION TO DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Mr. Walter Wigginton announces his candidacy for the office of Jailer of Franklin county, in this issue of the News, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Wigginton is one of the active young Democrats of the county, always true to his party, never hesitating to use his time and money in behalf of its success.

This announcement will be gladly received by his friends who are legion in this county, where he was reared, and where he has been an active citizen as well as party worker, his efforts heretofore having always been for his party and friends and not for self, as he has never asked for or held any kind of official position, having been one of the "boys in the trenches" working for others. There is no more clever man in the county than Walter Wigginton and not one who knows more of its people than he does. This fact, with the business qualifications which he possesses, makes him almost invincible in this race.

Reward Offered For Leaders.

With the idea of increasing the zeal of the local officials in their efforts to ferret out the authors in Western Kentucky, especially at Princeton, Hopkinsville and Russellville, Gov. Willson Monday offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of the leaders of the gangs of men who perpetrated these outrages and their staff of men. The Governor stipulates, however, that this reward shall only be good until October 1, of this year.

The reward contains this statement of the conditions: "A reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of the leader and chief officer and the officers next in authority to him of the night riders in the Hopkinsville raid, the Princeton raid and the Russellville raid. This reward shall only be good where the information leading to the apprehension and conviction is furnished before October 1, 1908."

KENTUCKY RAISED SOME CORN.

Figures Show State's Crops For Forty Years Aggregate 2,870,178,009 Bushels.

Kentucky has raised 2,870,178,009 bushels of corn in the last 40 years. The farm value—that is, the value on the farm—of all this corn was $1,150,617,978. These figures are for the 40-year period from 1866 to 1906, inclusive of both years.

The amount of wheat raised in Kentucky in this period in the farm granary at $308,185,102. These figures were obtained from annual reports at Washington. The department does not work the totals for more than one year.

Bell County Boy a Traveling Bar Room.

Tries To Sell Whisky To a Deputy Sheriff and Is Sent to Jail.

Walter Baker, an eighteen-year-old lad of Bell county, is a victim of bad company and is in the Franklin county jail waiting until September to face the charge of bootlegging when the Federal court meets here, because he was persuaded to peddle liquor in the mining camps of Stratton Creek.

That Baker is a novice at this whisky peddling business is clearly demonstrated because he tried to sell some of the whisky to Deputy Sheriff Joel Smith, of Bell county, and did not know to whom he was selling the liquor.

He claims that he fell in with a tough character, who told him that it would be an easy matter to peddle the whisky, and make a barrel of money out of the business. He and his companion went to Middlesboro and bought a lot of whisky, and he was sent out as a walking barroom in advance of his partner.

He had disposed of enough of the whisky to get caught before his partner arrived at the Straight Creek camps, and as soon as the latter got wind of his arrest he hid his whisky and did not sell it.

Candidates For Prison Commissioner.

MESSRS. McCUTCHEM AND RHEA WILL MAKE RACE AGAINST EACH OTHER.

The Boyling Green Messenger has the following item which is of interest here:

"The Third Congressional District is to have two candidates for prison commissioner, according to reports. Both hail from Logan county. Hon. H. S. McCutchen, the present commissioner, has let his friends know that he will be in the race, and Hon. Thos. Rhea, the present sheriff of Logan county, has begun a campaign for the place, which, as is known, will be filled by the next Legislature. Messrs. McCutchen and Rhea train with different factions in Logan county local politics, although heretofore each has succeeded in his own race. Both are strong men, and the district will be divided between them. There are not likely to be any other candidates from this district, and the candidates for the Legislature will likely be asked to declare on this question before the primaries."

Miss Corbett To Enter Novitiate.

Miss Katie Corbett left Wednesday morning for Nazareth Academy, in Nelson county, where she will enter the novitiate, and later become a member of the order of the Sisters of Charity. Miss Corbett is the youngest daughter of the late Jerry Corbett, and for several years has been attending school near Louisville and spending her vacations here with her aunt, Mrs. Coleman, on Steele street.

Mr. Green has now on file at his office here some five hundred applications from people over the State for such help.
